

3 One-week*

Summer Outdoor Drawing & Painting Camps For Teens & Advanced Preteens

Give your young artist some fulfilling hours in a creative and inspiring outdoor setting! These one-week camp sessions give teenagers and advanced preteens a chance to develop their drawing and painting skills while working independently. Each day will focus on a different artistic theme as students explore various techniques, subjects, and styles in a structured yet flexible environment.

Throughout the week, campers will receive guidance on enhancing their artistic skills and producing a professional-quality portfolio. Instruction will include advice on the types of artwork that should be included in a portfolio for academic applications or professional opportunities. Students must be comfortable drawing or painting independently, as step-by-step instruction will not be provided.

On the final day of camp (July 27), students will showcase their work in an exhibition, celebrating their progress and creativity. Instruction is available in both English and Chinese, depending on individual needs.

Campers should bring their own art supplies, lunch, and a passion for creativity!
